

Series: Exploring Islam and Christianity

Exploring the Bible and the Qur'an (Psalm 119:89)

Muslims revere their holy book, the Qur'an. Christians must pay special attention to respect the handling of their own Bibles around Muslims so as not to enforce the Muslim perception that the Bible is a lesser book.

I. Introduction to the _____ and the _____ Bible Information

Qur'an Information

The purpose of the Qur'an is to be the final scripture from Allah to His people.

II. The Qur'an – A _____ Revelation

- A. Why do we need a new revelation?
- B. Islamic doctrine of "tahrif," the corruption of Jewish and Christian scriptures (Surah 22:52-23).
- C. Islam claims there is a new chosen people: Muslims.
- D. The Qur'an is superior over previous scripture (Surah 12:1-3; Surah 9:33). It was given in Arabic (Surah 26:192, 195; 16:103)!
- E. Islamic doctrine of "ijaz al-Qur'an," the _____ of the Qur'an (Surah 85:21-22).
- F. Observations:

III. The Qur'an - _____

- A. False statement: Surah 19:27-28.
- B. Contradiction: Surah 50:38; 41:9.
- C. Contradiction: Who shall be saved? Surah 3:85; 2:62.
- D. The doctrine of _____ (Surah 2:106; 16:101).

The God of the Bible is faithful to His Word!

- 1. Psalm 119:89.
- 2. Matt. 24:35.
- 3. John 10:35.
- 4. 1 Cor. 14:33.